

Candidate Number:

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

- 1. Ben Logan should be prosecuted for allowing a place, namely Ballytemplar, to be used otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licence is held, namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(b) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
- 2. Ben Logan should be prosecuted for fraud by false representation in relation to one of the emergency exits contrary to Section 2 of the Fraud Act 2006.
- 3. Cheryl Peterson should be prosecuted for consuming intoxicating liquor in a place other than premises used as a private residence, namely, Ballytemplar, contrary to Article 60(2)(b) of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
- 4. Cheryl Peterson should be prosecuted for giving intoxicating liquor to a child, namely Evie Corr, contrary to Section 25 of the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968.
- 5. Cheryl Peterson should be prosecuted for purchasing lottery tickets at different prices than that stated on the said tickets contrary to Section 137(6) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
- 6. Cheryl Peterson should be prosecuted for selling intoxicating liquor to a child, namely Evie Corr, contrary to Article 60 of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
- 7. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for burglary in that she entered a marquee as a trespasser and stole a tent belonging to Tent World NI Ltd contrary to Section 9 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
- 8. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for burglary of a torch belonging to Louis Cowell contrary to Section 9 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 2006.
- 9. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for handling stolen goods, namely a tent belonging to Tent World NI Ltd, contrary to Section 21 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
- 10. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for theft of a tent belonging to Louis Cowell contrary to Section 1 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
- 11. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for theft of a torch belonging to Louis Cowell contrary to Section 1 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
- 12. Claudia Philpott should be prosecuted for unlawfully damaging property, namely a marquee the property of Tent World NI Ltd, contrary to Article 3 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977.
- 13. Declan Trainor should be prosecuted for handling stolen goods, namely a tent belonging to Tent World NI Ltd, contrary to Section 21 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.

Candidate Number:

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

14. Eamon Farrelly should be prosecuted for allowing a place, namely Ballytemplar, to be used otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licence is held, namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(b) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
15. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for consuming intoxicating liquor in a place other than premises used as a private residence, namely, Ballytemplar, contrary to Article 60(2)(b) of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
16. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for obtaining services by a dishonest act, namely presenting an identification document belonging to another, contrary to Section 11 of the Fraud Act 2006.
17. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for obtaining services, namely the sale of intoxicating liquor, dishonestly, contrary to Section 11 of the Fraud Act 2006.
18. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for possession of an identity document relating to someone else, namely Sophie Corr, without reasonable excuse, contrary to Section 6(1)(c) of the Identity Documents Act 2010.
19. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for possession of an identity document which was improperly obtained, without reasonable excuse, contrary to Section 6(1)(d) of the Identity Documents Act 2010.
20. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for purchasing intoxicating liquor contrary to Article 60(2)(a) of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
21. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for purchasing lottery tickets at different prices than that stated on the said tickets contrary to Section 137(6) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
22. Evie Corr should be prosecuted for using a false instrument, namely a fake ID, contrary to Section 3 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
23. Ian Harkness should be prosecuted for unlawfully and maliciously causing grievous bodily harm to Ronnie Rooney contrary to Section 20 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
24. Ian Harkness should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting Patricia Jelly contrary to Section 42 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
25. Ian Harkness should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting Ronnie Rooney contrary to Section 42 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.

Candidate Number:

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

26. Jayne Richardson should be prosecuted for allowing a place, namely Ballytemplar, to be used otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licence is held, namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(b) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
27. Judy White should be prosecuted for fraud by false representation in relation to the pollution filtration system contrary to Section 2 of the Fraud Act 2006.
28. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for a threat to commit criminal damage contrary to Article 4 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 in relation to property owned by Mount Olympus Events Ltd.
29. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for a threat to commit criminal damage contrary to Article 4 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 in relation to property owned by Penny Hamilton.
30. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for blackmail, namely making a demand for one million pounds with menaces contrary to Section 20 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
31. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for making to Robert Maxwell a threat to kill Penny Hamilton contrary to Section 16 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
32. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for unlawfully damaging property, namely a sign belonging to Mount Olympus Events Ltd, contrary to Article 3 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977.
33. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for unlawfully damaging property, namely a fence post belonging to Mount Olympus Events Ltd, contrary to Article 3 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977.
34. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for unlawfully damaging property, namely a sign belonging to Penny Hamilton, contrary to Article 3 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977.
35. Liam Woolf should be prosecuted for unlawfully damaging property, namely a fence post belonging to Penny Hamilton, contrary to Article 3 of the Criminal Damage (Northern Ireland) Order 1977.
36. Liam Woolf should be should be prosecuted for making to Penny Hamilton a threat to kill Penny Hamilton contrary to Section 16 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
37. Lucy O'Neill should be prosecuted for selling lottery tickets at different prices than that stated on the said tickets contrary to Section 137(6) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.

Candidate Number:

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

38. Mount Olympus Events Ltd should be prosecuted for permitting a person under the age of 18, namely Evie Corr, to consume intoxicating liquor in licensed premises contrary to Article 60(1) of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
39. Mount Olympus Events Ltd should be prosecuted for using a place, namely Ballytemplar, otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licences is held , namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(a) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
40. Noah McMullan should be prosecuted for allowing a place, namely Ballytemplar, to be used otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licence is held, namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(b) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
41. Patricia Jelly should be prosecuted for disorderly behaviour, contrary to Article 18(1)(a) of the Public Order (Northern Ireland) Order 1987.
42. Patricia Jelly should be prosecuted for obstructing a constable, namely Matt Wilcox, in the execution of his duty contrary to Section 66 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1988.
43. Patricia Jelly should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting a constable, namely Matt Wilcox, in the execution of his duty contrary to Section 66 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1988.
44. Patricia Jelly should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting Matt Wilcox thereby occasioning him actual bodily harm contrary to Section 47 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
45. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for forgery, namely creating a false ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 1 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
46. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for fraud by false representation in relation to a festival ticket contrary to Section 2 of the Fraud Act 2006.
47. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for having in his possession apparatus which has been specially designed for the making of false identity documents contrary to Section 6(d) of the Identity Documents Act 2010.
48. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for making a copy of a false instrument, namely a ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 2 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
49. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for using a copy of a false instrument, namely a ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 4 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

50. Patrick O'Donoghue should be prosecuted for using a false instrument, namely a ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 3 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
51. Paws for Thought should be prosecuted for failing to state the price of any ticket distributed or sold on the ticket contrary to Section 137(6) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
52. Paws for Thought should be prosecuted for selling lottery tickets at more than £1 per ticket contrary to Section 137(5) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
53. Penny Hamilton should be prosecuted for allowing a place, namely Ballytemplar, to be used otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which an entertainment licence is held, namely the required number of functioning emergency exits, contrary to Article 10(2)(b) of Schedule 1 of The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
54. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for having a controlled drug, namely diazepam, in his possession, contrary to Section 5(2) of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.
55. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for having a controlled drug, namely diazepam, in his possession...with intent to supply another...contrary to Section 5 (3) of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.
56. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for robbery of diazepam tablets belonging to NI Ambulance Service contrary to Section 9 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
57. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for robbery of diazepam tablets belonging to Rose Campbell contrary to Section 9 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
58. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for theft of diazepam tablets belonging to NI Ambulance Service contrary to Section 1 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
59. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted for theft of diazepam tablets belonging to Rose Campbell contrary to Section 1 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
60. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted with the assault of an ambulance worker, namely Rose Campbell, contrary to Section 54(1)(a) of the Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2016.
61. Ronnie Rooney should be prosecuted with the assault of an ambulance worker, namely Jackie Brown, contrary to Section 54(1)(a) of the Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 2016.
62. Roseanne Martin should be prosecuted for forgery, namely creating a false ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 1 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.

Candidate Number:

Institute of Professional Legal Studies
Admissions Test April 2021
Section B

63. Roseanne Martin should be prosecuted for handling stolen goods, namely a tent belonging to Tent World NI Ltd, contrary to Section 21 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
64. Roseanne Martin should be prosecuted for handling stolen goods, namely a torch belonging to Louis Cowell, contrary to Section 21 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
65. Roseanne Martin should be prosecuted for theft of a tent belonging to Tent World NI Ltd, contrary to Section 1 of the Theft Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.
66. Roseanne Martin should be prosecuted for using a false instrument, namely a ticket to Olympus Festival, contrary to Section 3 of the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
67. Siobhan Murphy should be prosecuted for selling lottery tickets at more than £1 per ticket contrary to Section 137(5) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
68. Tom Beattie should be prosecuted for obstructing a constable, namely, Owen Crothers, contrary to Section 66 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1988.
69. Tom Beattie should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting Owen Crothers contrary to Section 42 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
70. Tom Beattie should be prosecuted for unlawfully assaulting Patricia Jelly contrary to Section 42 of the Offences Against the Person Act 1861.
71. Turlough Donnelly should be prosecuted for consuming intoxicating liquor in a place other than premises used as a private residence, namely, Ballytemplar, contrary to Article 60(2)(b) of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
72. Turlough Donnelly should be prosecuted for giving intoxicating liquor to a child, namely Evie Corr, contrary to Section 25 of the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968.
73. Turlough Donnelly should be prosecuted for purchasing lottery tickets at different prices than that stated on the said tickets contrary to Section 137(6) of the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985.
74. Turlough Donnelly should be prosecuted for selling intoxicating liquor to a child, namely Evie Corr, contrary to Article 60 of The Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.