

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
BELFAST

INSTITUTE OF IRISH STUDIES

Mondays at 4.30pm (unless otherwise stated)

Irish Studies Seminar Room, 27 University Square 01.003

- 28 Sept. [Fri. at 4pm], Prof Sean Farrell (Northern Illinois University), 'The Trillick Railway Affair (1854): writing microhistory in post-Famine Ulster'
- 8 Oct. Dr Andrew Holmes (QUB), 'The Irish Presbyterian mind, 1830-1930'
- 15 Oct. Dr Emma Reisz (QUB): 'Robert Hart from "the banks of the Lagan" to "the world's work": Ulster, Ireland and British imperialism in China'
- 22 Oct. Dr Eddie Molloy (Liverpool University): 'Religious dimensions in the political thought of John Mitchel'
- 29 Oct. Prof Anna Teekell (Christopher Newport University): 'Alternative facts / alternative fictions: The Emergency (1939-45) and the language of modernism'
- 5 Nov. Dr Rena Maguire (QUB): 'Unlocking the stable door: using equestrianism to enhance our understanding of the Late Iron Age in Ireland'
- 12 Nov. Dr Hugh Turpin (QUB): 'Unholy Catholic Ireland: morality and the rejection of Catholicism in the contemporary Republic'
- 19 Nov. Dr Darragh Gannon (QUB): 'The Republic of Letters: Ireland and the world, 1919-1923'
- 26 Nov. Dr Peter Gardner (Aberdeen University): 'Ulster-Scots as catharsis: regaining senses of collective dignity through ethnic narrative'
- 3 Dec. Dr Stephen O'Neill (TCD): '"A question of formulas": locating Irish culture after partition'
- 10 Dec. Dr Andy Newby (Tampere University): '"Death had lost its meaning": remembering the Great Finnish Famine (1867-68)'