Preface

This workbook was made following curriculum changes that added translation to GCSE Modern Languages. It is designed to support teachers as they start teaching translation at the earlier stage of Key Stage 3. The workbook contains exercises for both direct (Spanish-English) and inverse (English-Spanish) translation. The worksheets of each section get progressively more difficult, with more challenging vocabulary and grammar

This workbook is designed with Year 8/Year 9 pupils in mind and is based on the ¡Viva! Libro 1 textbook, while Workbook II is based ¡Viva! Libro 2. They should, however, be compatible with an array of different textbooks.

Some exercises are accompanied by “Frases Útiles”, which provide support for more challenging vocabulary, as well as some words and phrases that may be specific to the ¡Viva! series. The “Para Saber Más” sections are intended to make students think in more depth about Spanish, the structures they are using, as well as some translation issues.

Translating into English should be easier - you're able to tell naturally if what you've written is grammatically correct!

Before starting to translate, read the original a few times to make sure you understand it. You can't translate it without understanding it!

In Spanish, you use different structures and tenses than in English. For example: "I like pizza" would be "me gusta la pizza".

Translating is a great way to revise and learn new grammar and vocab. Take a note of new words - you never know when they'll crop up again!

When translating into English, re-read what you've written. It should read as though it was originally written in English.

Translating into Spanish is trickier - it'll be harder to spot mistakes you make. (But understanding the original should be easier!)

Traducir del inglés
23:39 - 8 ago. 2017

When translating into Spanish, it might be tempting to make up words (you might do it by accident!) It's good to check when guessing words.

Traducir del inglés
23:41 - 8 ago. 2017

When translating into Spanish, check things that you don't need to check in English, like adjective endings.

Traducir del inglés
23:43 - 8 ago. 2017

Sometimes re-reading your translation a few hours later can be helpful - a fresh perspective can help you spot mistakes.

Traducir del inglés
18:59 - 6 ago. 2017

Remember that word order is different in Spanish: "a blue car" would be "un coche azul".

Traducir del inglés
23:45 - 8 ago. 2017

Translation isn't as hard as you think - you often do it in your head when reading in Spanish. It's only a matter of writing it down!
